

RESEARCH PANEL FOR BERKSHIRE FAMILY HISTORY RESEARCH (2019)

NOTES:

- (a) Clients must contact the Panel Member(s) to agree the scope of work and the appropriate fee before sending them any Family History documentation.
- (b) Family History documentation, when sent, should detail everything discovered to date with background information, plus any areas already researched to avoid duplication.
- (c) All correspondence must be between the Client and the Researcher. The Society Secretary must only be involved if there is a complaint.
- (d) The inclusion of Researchers in this panel does not imply any recommendation or otherwise by the Berkshire Family History Society.

The list, in alphabetical order, is as follows:-

Louise Fenner

Email: louise.berkshire@gmail.com

Areas of Expertise: Research in Berkshire Record Office; Reading Local Studies Library; internet sources; GRO indexes.

I have 30 years experience researching family histories including my own. I am a member of the Society of Genealogists. Each family history is different so research is tailored to individual requirements. Please contact me at the above email for consultation and quote.

Tracey Horrell BA(Hons) Gene Tracers, 1 Friar Street, Reading, Berks, RG1 1DA.

Email: info@genetracers.co.uk Tel: 07585 442185 website: www.genetracers.co.uk

Areas of Expertise: Research in Berks. Record Office; Reading Local Studies Library; Oxfordshire History Centre (Archives and Local Studies); The National Archives; London Metropolitan Archives; British Library; other London archives; internet sources. Complete family tree research packages throughout the UK. Tracing missing beneficiaries and living relatives.

I have over 25 years experience in tracing family histories and am a member of the Society of Genealogists and an Associate member of AGRA, No research too small. Please contact me for a free assessment and quote.

Mrs Debbie Kennett

Email: debbiekennett@gmail.com

Areas of Expertise: Parish registers; Berkshire Archdeacons and PCC Probate Records and some Death Duty Indexes; GRO Indexes; Berkshire Record Office and Reading & Local Studies Library; research into Berkshire families.

Cont'd.....

Linda Ricketts B.Ed.(Hons): Msc. (Genealogy, Palaeographical and Heraldic Studies)

Email: linda.ricketts@btinternet.com

With over 30 years' experience I offer a family and local history research service specialising in Berkshire, London, Hampshire, Wiltshire, Oxfordshire, Scotland and Ireland. I also have considerable experience in tracing worldwide ancestors, including Jewish records.

Other services I offer include transcribing wills and other official documents.

Research is tailored to suit the needs of the client, one person or a whole family, no project is too small. For a free consultation either ring Linda on 01189 692929 or email, as above.